

Dr. Lloyd C. Keefauver Ends 40-Year Career As Educator Today; Riegle Takes Local Post

A former Mt. Joy Twp. farm boy who began his education in a one-room country school today ends with retirement a 40-year career as teacher, principal and superintendent of schools.

Honored by his staff and teachers and assured of unique honors in the history of the development of the Gettysburg public school system, Dr. Lloyd C. Keefauver today turns over the reins of his administration of the Gettysburg Joint School District to a successor after more than 30 years.

Ten days past his 66th birthday, Dr. Keefauver will be succeeded Tuesday by H. Edgar Riegle, who since the spring of 1954 has been Adams County superintendent of schools.

"Odd Jobs Waiting"

Dr. Keefauver has the distinction of heading the local public school system longer than any other person in its history and the Keefauver Elementary School, being used for its second year, was named in his honor.

With no special plans after retirement, Dr. Keefauver is looking forward to "cleaning up an accumulation of 30 years of odd jobs around home" and that's likely to keep him busy until trout season opens and he can indulge once more in his favorite sport.

Lloyd Conover Keefauver was born December 22, 1890, in Mt. Joy Twp., a son of J. William and Helen Margaret Keefauver and he attended Horner's School, long since closed. He was graduated from the former Gettysburg Academy in 1911 and four years later from Gettysburg College.

Taught At Academy First

The next year he taught German and Latin at the academy and coached football and baseball. Then he went to Cape May Court House in New Jersey, where he taught German, Latin and history, coached track and baseball and introduced football as a major sport there. After two years there he entered the army in March, 1918, and served with a remount division at Camp Meade, Md.

On St. Patrick's Day in 1919 he became principal of schools at Hampstead, Md., and taught agriculture and coached in addition to serving as principal. He also found time to court the music teacher in the Hampstead schools. Miriam Grace Bergman, of nearby Manchester, who became Mrs. Keefauver in June of 1922.

That year at the age of 31, he came back to Adams County to serve for four years as assistant county superintendent under W. Raymond Shank and in the fall of 1926, he became superising principal of the Gettysburg public schools, succeeding the late Miss Helen B. Cope and starting his duties as the original unit of the present high school building was put into use.

Active In Community

Along the way he did post-graduate work at the University of Maryland and Columbia University and earned a master's degree. In 1945, he was Alumnus Mater, Gettysburg College, conferred the honorary degree of Doctor of Science in Education.

Besides service in local, state and national professional groups, Dr. Keefauver has headed the local Lions Club, is a member of the American Legion and has headed its annual essay contest committee for a number of years. He is a member of the Masons, the Zembo Shrine Club and the Last Man's Club of the Legion. He is a past master of the Masons, a past high priest of the Royal Arch chapter and a past commander of the Knights Templar.

Dr. and Mrs. Keefauver have two children, William and Helen. Both are married and the retiring superintendent has been a grandfather for some time.

Highlights of his 30 years as head of the public school system were related in a paper written and read by J. M. Sheads, high school American history teacher, at a pre-holiday tea tendered Dr. Keefauver by the teachers and his staff.

Period Of Great Expansion

The paper titled "Thirty-one Years at the Helm of the Gettysburg Public Schools," follows:

"This afternoon it is most fitting that we pay tribute to the excellent leadership and professional guidance of our retiring district superintendent, Dr. L. C. Keefauver. The students, the parents, the teachers, and visitors have been most fortunate to have had Dr. Keefauver as our directing head during the past quarter century, a period which has included some of the most crucial years in the history of American education. He has been at the helm

Two Treated At Warner Hospital

Kenneth E. Hess, 25, 402 Hanover St., an employee of the L. B. Smith Co., Camp Hill, was treated at the Warner Hospital Saturday for an injury to his right foot. A 15-pound piece of iron fell on his foot.

COUPLE WEDS THIS MORNING

Miss Patricia Ann Witmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Witmer of Greencastle, Pa., became the bride of G. Thomas Steinberger, son of George Steinberger of Fairfield and the late Gladys Clapsadl Steinberger, at a ceremony performed this morning at 10:30 o'clock in St. Mary's Catholic Church, Fairfield, by the bridegroom's pastor, the Rev. Father John A. McAnulty.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a light blue brocade silk street-length dress with three-quarter length sleeves and matching accessories. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid nestled in ribbon streamers. The Bible was a gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Rosemary Pine, Greencastle, was the bride's maid of honor. She wore a beige silk, princess style dress with mint green accessories and an orchid corsage with mint green ribbon.

Edward L. Collins Jr., of Harrisburg, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, served as best man. The usher was Allen Crouse, Fairfield. Mrs. D. F. Selgal, of McKnightstown, presided at the organ and played the wedding marches by Rossini.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at St. Mary's Church hall after which the couple left on a wedding trip of unannounced destination.

Mrs. Steinberger is a graduate of Greencastle High School. Mr. Steinberger graduated from Gettysburg High School, served with the United States Coast Guard and at present employed as a clerk at Fort Ritchie, Md.

OBTAIN LICENSE

A marriage license was issued Saturday in Carlisle to James R. Rowles, Gardners R. 1, and Janet M. Weldner, Gardners R. 2.

Tax-Conscious Legislature Will Begin '57 Session On Tuesday

HARRISBURG (AP) — A tax-conscious Legislature squared away today for opening of the Pennsylvania General Assembly's 142nd session.

While most of the state observes the New Year holiday, the Legislature will start its 1957 session at high noon Tuesday in a panorama of color and tradition.

A provision in the state constitution fixes the first Tuesday in January for opening of regular sessions of the General Assembly in odd-numbered years. That comes this year on New Year's day.

Brief Ceremonies

The opening day's ceremonies will be limited to organizing the House and Senate and hearing Gov. Leader's message on the state of the commonwealth.

Then a recess will be taken for a week. Committees will be named on Jan. 7, completing the Legislature's machinery for the session. See 2-Billion Budget

JOHN I. OHLER RETIRES TODAY AFTER 53 YEARS

John I. Ohler, who became a clerk at Dougherty and Hartley's store on Lincoln Square 53 years ago and later a partner in the concern, retires today with the close of business this afternoon.

A native of the Harney area, Mr. Ohler had been employed in two stores there over a period of five years, starting to work at the age of 16.

One of the customers who found the young man, then 21, a pleasant and efficient clerk at the Harney store, happened to be in Dougherty and Hartley store in Gettysburg when the partners were talking about the need of a young clerk. The customer suggested to the Messrs. Dougherty and Hartley that John Ohler of Harney might be the man they were looking for.

Became Partner In 194

The firm sent a letter and a few days later the young Mr. Ohler, driving his most prized possession, a horse and buggy, arrived in Gettysburg. He spoke with the late Howard C. Hartley and was hired in the spot on September 3, 1903.

In 1944 when last of the surviving partners in the firm of Dougherty and Hartley died, Mr. Ohler and

DRAFT BOARD'S SECRETARY IS RETIRING TODAY

Miss Margaret W. McIlhenny, 30 E. High St., retires at the close of work today after 12 years' service as secretary of the Adams County Selective Service Board.

Probably one of the most widely known women in the county, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James W. McIlhenny, has devoted more than 20 years to the service of the young people of the county.

From 1933 to 1943 she was Junior Red Cross secretary for the county, visiting each school each year, and it was during her period of service that the county Junior Red Cross started its tradition of "100" per cent membership" with every school signed as a unit in the Junior Red Cross.

Started In 1943

She became clerk at the local Selective Service board January 1, 1943, succeeding Mrs. Paul Singmaster, who at that time resigned to become a clerk at the law office of Bulett and Bulett.

As part of her draft board duties she became known to thousands of men who entered draft age during the period, and was the last person from the county to say farewell to hundreds of young men as they went into service during World War II.

Her first period of service with the draft board was from January 1, 1943, to May 31, 1947, when the Selective Service boards closed and records were sent to Mechanicsburg. She was placed, along with the draft board, on a "reserve status" at that time. In August, 1948, when the Selective Service board reopened, she resumed full-time duties as clerk to the board.

Since August, 1948, she has handled the records and met 5,689 young men who have come of draft age during the period. She also was, again, the last person in the county to say farewell to 611 of those men who were called into service.

Mrs. Richard Swisher, Gettysburg R. 5, who has been Miss McIlhenny's assistant since January 15, 1951, will become the new clerk of the draft board effective Tuesday.

Before beginning her work with the Junior Red Cross Miss McIlhenny was employed for a time in Washington where she was a clerk with the Census Bureau of the U. S. Department of Commerce.

She has "no immediate plans" for activities during retirement she says, adding, "I just want to rest for awhile. I think I have reached the point where I will just take it easy and visit about awhile."

ROBERT A. KING, HUNTERSTOWN, DIES SATURDAY

Robert A. King, 68, retired farmer and Lincoln Highway caretaker and first of a family that has been prominently connected with baseball in the Hunterstown area, died Saturday night at his Gettysburg R. 4 home after a brief illness.

Born September 13, 1888, at Hunterstown, he was a son of the late Abraham and Harriet (Little) King. A farmer much of his life, he became well known throughout the area as one of the county's outstanding baseball players in the days when the late Eddie Plank in games in this area His son and grandsons have carried on the baseball tradition of family.

After retiring as a farmer, Mr. King served for many years as caretaker for the Lincoln Highway between Gettysburg and New Oxford and finally retired from that about 1939.

Surviving are his wife, the former Georgianna Englebert, a son, William King, Gettysburg R. 4; a sister, Mrs. Ella Weikert, Glen Rock; 11 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Funeral services Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the Hunterstown Methodist Church, of which he was a member, with his pastor, the Rev. Amos Meyers, officiating. Interment will be in the Great Conewago Presbyterian Cemetery.

Miss Dorothy L. Wagner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul F. Wagner, 456 Krams Ave., Philadelphia, and Pvt. Charles L. Badgers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Badgers, 101 Lumber St., Littlestown, were united in marriage on Saturday at 5:30 p.m. in Belhaven Lutheran Church, Roxborough. The double ring ceremony was performed by the pastor, the Rev. Herhard Wuercher, in a setting of Christmas greens, pinecones and candlelight.

The bride was attended by Miss Carol Bjork as maid of honor. The groom chose for his best man his twin brother, Harry M. Badgers. Serving as ushers were Charles Zeliger, cousin of the bride, and Lewis Turner, nephew of the bride. Mrs. Emma Feigel was soloist and was accompanied by Miss Marjorie McFall, who also played the traditional wedding marches and presented a brief organ recital prior to the ceremony.

Those discussions produced indications the Assembly may be asked to raise 250 to 300 millions in new or additional taxes to balance the budget expected to reach 2 billion dollars for the 1957-58 biennial period. The budget will include some 150 millions for education voted by previous Legislatures, which must be financed by the 1957 session.

Republicans, who control both the House and Senate, have declared for a "hold-the-line" policy on taxes, which includes retaining the present sales tax at the present 3 per cent rate. That rate automatically will drop to 2 per cent on June 1 unless the Assembly acts.

CARS RIFLED ON XMAS EVE

Borough police were notified Saturday that sneak thieves rifled at least two parked autos Christmas Eve.

Miss Jo Orner, Bendersville, told police Saturday that a brown shoulder bag with the letters FJO on it was stolen from her car while it was parked Saturday night off Railroad St., near Carlisle St. in parking lot. She said the bag contained two ladies' wallets, one hers and the other her mother's, and that one of the wallets contained $3 in cash. Both had cards in them identifying the owners.

At the same time police were notified by Vaughn LaMaster, Fort Loudon, of a theft from his car on Christmas Eve when it was parked near the intersection of Water and N. Washington Sts. LaMaster told police he was visiting friends here when someone removed from his car a black bowling ball and the leather bag in which it is carried, a pair of tan bowling shoes and a reversible jacket.

Police, beginning the search for the stolen articles, expressed the strong hope that autoists would lock their cars when parking them with valuables in them. Particularly is it necessary to lock cars, the officers said, on occasions when there are a great number of people and parked autos about, such as Christmas Eve and tonight, New Year's Eve, when thieves are more likely to be in search of unlocked autos to secure what they can.

TO STREAMLINE ARMY DIVISIONS INTO FIVE UNITS

By P. D. ELDRED

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Infantry divisions made up of five combat units and geared to fight atomic as well as conventional warfare, soon will replace the bulkier, three-regiment divisions.

Armored divisions also are to be modernized, but the changes in them at this time will be comparatively minor, the Army announced Thursday in Washington and at 8th Army headquarters here.

A special combat development and research center at Ft. Ord, Calif., has been taking the "bugs" out of the new basic combat unit around which the streamlined divisions will be created.

Details Not Disclosed

Field tests have shown that the unit best suited for modern warfare is "larger than the old battalion and smaller than the regiment."

Just how many men it will have was not disclosed.

The reorganized infantry divisions will be characterized by increased firepower, greater mobility and the capability of wide dispersal to survive under atomic attack.

Many New Weapons

The new division will have 3,700 fewer men.

A whole new group of weapons is contemplated.

The Army has announced a new 7.62 mm. machine gun, which it describes as "a lightweight, general purpose gun developed to replace all three of the present 30-caliber machine guns. It can be fired from shoulder, hip, bipod or an aluminum tripod mount." The .76 bullet is just a fraction smaller than .30 caliber.

New Guided Missile

There is a new rifle on which tests have been completed which vision much harder hitting.

Closes Shop

Marie Dionne, the first of the many-troubled quintuplet sisters to venture into business, closed her flower shop in Montreal, Que., Wednesday. Her shop manager said "Marie is closing the business for personal reasons," denying financial losses. This picture of Marie was taken at the shop opening in 1955. (AP Wirephoto) fires the NATO ammunition and embodies certain improvements.

The infantry will have a new guided missile known as the "Dart," transported by light truck and described as "a simple but effective antitank missile . . . with a high probability that a single hit would destroy a heavily armored tank."

Improved artillery, mortars, submachineguns, helicopters and the addition of Honest John and other type missiles will, the Army believes, make the smaller division much harder hitting.

NO BOTTLENECK SEEN BY NIXON AT CAMP KILMER

By SIDNEY C. MOODY

CAMP KILMER, N.J.—Vice President Richard M. Nixon says he sees no possibility of a "bottleneck" developing here in the refugee resettlement program if expanded processing goals are reached.

Nixon on Thursday wound up a two-continent inspection of the Hungarian refugee airlift with a visit to this Army center, the last stop for thousands in their flight to freedom.

He saw many aspects of camp life, including long lines waiting outside the three mess halls. But the lines moved quickly and there was plenty of sealing space inside the halls.

Takes 9 Hours

Living quarters are Army barracks partitioned into small rooms with wallboard and curtains, two persons to a room. Children played quietly in the corridors with new toys while adults read or shopped at the post exchanges.

Others watched television, sewed or just talked in the recreation center.

In the processing buildings, newly arrived refugees moved steadily through medical examinations, customs, fingerprinting and immigration. Then they were interviewed by relief agencies for their job qualifications and where they wanted to settle and finally were issued new clothing.

Most refugees are processed within nine hours. The rest of the time is spent waiting to be matched with a job opportunity in the area where the refugee wants to live.

REBEL LEADER HAS ESCAPED

JAKARTA (AP)—The government radio in the capital of rebellious north Sumatra announced Friday that the leader of the army revolt, Col. Maludin Simbolon, had escaped from Medan, the north Sumatran capital.

Army sources said Mustang fighters and B25 bombers of the Indonesian air force took off from Jakarta for north Sumatra this morning.

They said the planes, in squadron strength, were going to help beat off any attack by Simbolon against officers trying to reinstate the authority of Premier Ali Sastroamidjojo's central government. Simbolon's second in command, Lt. Col. Djajin Ginting, announced yesterday he had taken command of the army in north Sumatra. He pledged his loyalty to President Sukarno and said he would support the central government.

Simbolon and the leader of a companion bloodless army revolt in central Sumatra, Lt. Col. Achmad Hussein, had demanded that Sastroamidjojo and his Cabinet quit. Both, however, had announced their loyalty to Sukarno but also called for a reconciliation between the President and Dr. Mohammed Hatta, Sumatran coleader of the Indonesian revolution who resigned as vice president Dec. 1.

There was no indication that Hussein and his forces were ending their resistance.

TRUCKLOAD OF GIFTS TO NOELS

A fire truck load of Christmas presents was delivered to the family of Mrs. Dorothy Noel, Green Springs, Saturday afternoon as a result of the appeal of the Adams County Fire Chiefs Association to provide a "Christmas" for the family of youngsters who missed Christmas when their five-year-old sister was badly injured by a shotgun wound Christmas eve.

From the great quantity of articles donated by residents of the county, firemen picked toys suitable for the youngsters, plus clothes that fitted the sizes of the children who range from four years to 17. Ten of her children still reside with the widowed mother.

Bernard B. Miller, Gettysburg R. 1, president of the fire chiefs, in again expressing his thanks to the public for its "outstanding response," said, "I hope it is agreeable to all, but we were forced to make a decision when far more articles were donated than ever anticipated. There was much more than the Noels could use, and even after we tried to cancel the appeal Friday night, quantities of gifts arrived. We loaded a truck with things suitable for the Noels and the rest we plan to distribute to three other families with small children in the county who are in need. Cash donations toward the Noels will be used to help pay off a sum of money owed by Mrs. Noel on a washing machine, a necessity in a family with so many small youngsters."

It is unfortunate that all who gave could not have been present to have seen the looks in the eyes of the Noel children as the toys were handed off the truck to them. It was without a doubt the greatest Christmas the youngsters ever had, and Mrs. Noel was even more grateful for the clothing for the youngsters and herself and the food. Gifts even included a cord of wood."

RETIREES FROM TOWN'S EMPLOY

Nelson Joseph Shank, 142 W. High St., today will retire as a borough employee when he concludes his day's work with the borough highway crew.

An employee of the town for 27 years, he began his duty under the late Augustus Tawney.

For many years a farmer near Bigerville, Mr. Shank also for many years operated a blacksmith shop in Bigerville, near the present Bigerville Garage.

A daughter, Miss Viola Shank, an employee of the G. C. Murphy Co., with whom he resides, helped him in blacksmithing when she was a youngster. The family moved to Gettysburg in 1926 and in 1929 Mr. Shank joined the ranks of borough highway employees.

Interested in gardening and carpentry, he plans during his retirement to spend more time making chairs for sale to the public. In recent years he has made a number of chairs for home and relatives' use. Gardening is also among plans for retirement.

He will be 76 April 30.

Fifteen Killed

The Charleston base said it would fly an investigation team and litters to Dhahran this afternoon. It said the plane was a total loss.

The base reported the plane carried 29 passengers and 12 crewmen.

A spokesman said a message with a list of survivors was garbled, but he had made out 26 entries in the list. He added that, presumably there were mostly American military personnel abroad.

On Regular Flight

Capt. Ervin R. Breslauer, public information officer, said the plane was on a regular flight for the Military Air Transportation Service from its base at Charleston, to Dhahran via McGuire Air Force Base, New Jersey; Lages Field in the Azores, and Tripoli, Libya.

He said his information over MATS wires from Dhahran was that the plane crashed one mile east of the field and burned at 11 p.m. eastern standard time, 3 p.m. Dhahran time.

HOLIDAY DEATH TOTAL CLIMBS; RATE IS LOWER

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The national death toll from traffic accidents this new year's holiday climbed higher today but at a rate much slower than the record-shattering Christmas weekend.

With the 102 hour holiday more than half completed, traffic mishaps had accounted for 213 lives. In addition, there were 24 deaths from fires and 37 from miscellaneous accidents for an overall total of 274.

The accident count began at 6 p.m. (local time) Friday and continues until midnight Tuesday.

766 At Christmas

The carnage on the nation's highways during the Christmas holiday — also a four-day period — left 706 persons dead. The total cost in lives from all accidents reached 884, also a new record. Fires killed 54 of the 178 non-traffic victims.

Ned H. Dearborn, president of the National Safety Council, said late last night he noted "an ominous trend in the traffic toll."

"We hope the trend can be halted by a resumption of the care and common sense that marked the earlier hours of the holiday," he said.

Most Deadly Hours Ahead

"The shock and enormity of the Christmas toll," was cited by Dearborn as a primary reason for the lower New Year weekend highway death rate.

However, safety officials said the most deadly time on American roads during the current holiday is New Year's Eve and New Year's Day. Celebrants crowd the highways and the incidence of drunk driving usually increases sharply, they said.

The NSC predicted that 490 persons would die on the highways during the long new year weekend. The record toll is 407, set in the four-day 1952-53 New Year period.

Safety experts estimated that about 35 to 40 million motorists will be on the road during the current holiday. This compares with more than 45 million in the yuletide period, they said.

Property Transfers

The following property transfers have been recorded in the office of the register and recorder:

Joseph J. and Mary L. Baker, Nashville, Tenn., sold to the Bream Realty Company, Gettysburg, for $25,000 a property in Gettysburg.

Cora G. Hankey, Chambersburg, sold to George T. Steinberger, Fairfield, for $3,900 a property on Washington St. in Fairfield.

Joseph R. and Helen B. Eden, Cumberland Twp., sold to Mildred E. Eden, Franklin Twp., for $300 a property in Franklin Twp.

Elizabeth Lippy O'Neill and Ruth Lippy Shafeleter, executors of the will of Raber C. Sell, late of Conewago Twp., sold to Virginia Sell, surviving spouse of Raber C. Sell, Conewago Twp., three properties in Heidelberg Twp., Conewago Twp., and West Manheim Twp.

15 East German H.S.
Boys Flee To West

BERLIN (W) — All 15 boys in an East German high school's senior class have slipped across the border into West Berlin. They fled to escape Communist reprisals for a five-minute silence they staged in class to protest Soviet intervention in Hungary.

The 15 will be flown to West Germany and given an opportunity to finish high school there.

The boys are from the small town of Storkow, southeast of Berlin.

They made their silent protest Oct. 29, during a history class, after the first intervention of Soviet troops in Hungary.

"NO RESOLUTIONS"

Each year at just about this time . . . folks make new resolutions . . . trying to solve problems with . . . some hasty rash conclusions . . . they say they won't do this or that . . . and swear by stars above . . . to line the coming days with things . . . like friendliness and love . . . now this old custom I'll admit . . . has many points of worth . . . for things that tend to foster good . . . spread peace throughout the earth . . . but as I look to years gone by . . . and think of vows now broken . . . I do believe this year I'll leave . . . my promises unspoken . . . I'll make no resolutions . . . because somehow I know . . . that when the New Year starts to roll . . . the resolutions go . . . instead I'll ask the Master . . . for faith to do my best . . . and strength to make me equal to . . . the roughest kind of test.

ALL-STATERS BACK

Both teams are sparked by 1956 all state players. Farrell is paced by towering Don Jones, while Palmerton features sharpshooting Bob Mikvy.

Farrell got off to a slow start in early season competition, dropping contests to Monessen, also a WPIAL club, and Altoona, the defending Dist. 6 champion and strongest bet to repeat for that district's title.

However, the Steelers bounced back in holiday play to win their fifth consecutive Farrell Lions Club Turney crown, trimming Duquesne, 60-48, and Chester, of Dist. 1, 62-52.

Farrell opens its regular Sect. III league competition Friday against New Castle, which was dumped in a Lions tournament semifinal by Chester, 60-35.

Meanwhile, at the other end of the state Palmerton tops in Dist. 11, has coasted through its early season card undefeated, collecting victories against such competition as usually strong Easton, 35-23; Coaldale, 72-40, and Bethlehem, 53-50.

Palmerton opens its home Lehigh Valley League action Friday against White Hall, a team the eastern champs defeated, 46-40, in a holiday tournament.

Reserved For Tuesday

The big foreign affairs issues — such as standby authority to use U.S. troops in the Middle East, foreign aid and help for Hungarian refugees — might come up for some discussion, but were primarily reserved for tomorrow. That's when Democratic congressional leaders, too, are invited to a White House briefing.

Eisenhower returned to Washington late yesterday for the conferences after a weekend of relaxation at the Augusta (Ga) National Golf Club.

Eisenhower will deal with both foreign and domestic affairs in the yearly State-of-the-Union message which he plans to deliver personally to Congress Jan. 10. The new Congress convenes Thursday.

Aid For Schools

Eisenhower is expected to push again for some of the legislation Congress sidetracked in the past. One proposal almost certain to be renewed is his request for federal aid to build schools. Rival plans for school aid perished in the last Congress amid a fight over an antisegregation rider.

Another is civil rights legislation, stressing mainly protection of the right to vote, which the administration proposed to Congress late last session.

No general tax reduction plans seem to be in the offing because of continued high federal spending, mainly for defense.

THREE-CAR CRASH

Automobiles operated by Mrs. Anne Neiman, Abbottstown R. 1, and Jermanus L. Jacoby, 44, Hanover R. 4, were damaged in a collision Friday about 1:55 p.m. in Hanover. Police said Jacoby pulled from a parking place and sideswiped the right side of the Neiman car and then hit the machine of Wendell B. Yingling, Hanover, parked on the east side of the street. Police estimated damage at $75 to the Neiman car, $30 to Jacoby's and none to Yingling's machine.

LICENSED TO WED

James F. Brady, Warwick, R. 1, and Marianne L. Sanders, Emmitsburg, have secured a marriage license in Frederick. Another license was issued in Frederick to Donald E. Flax, Emmitsburg, and Shirley A. Gilbert, Gettysburg.

RATE FARRELL, PALMERTON AS TEAMS TO BEAT

HARRISBURG (W) — After a month of warm-up competition and holiday tournaments, Pennsylvania's scholastic basketball teams this week get down to brass tacks in league and district play.

Two and a half months away are the district playoffs — the first major step toward regional and state titles. But in the interim, league competition must be over.

Again this season the team to beat in the west is Farrell, while the defending state titlist, while in the east defending eastern champion and state runnerup Palmerton looks stronger than ever.

ALL-STATERS BACK

Both teams are sparked by 1956 all state players. Farrell is paced by towering Don Jones, while Palmerton features sharpshooting Bob Mikvy.

Farrell got off to a slow start in early season competition, dropping contests to Monessen, also a WPIAL club, and Altoona, the defending Dist. 6 champion and strongest bet to repeat for that district's title.

However, the Steelers bounced back in holiday play to win their fifth consecutive Farrell Lions Club Turney crown, trimming Duquesne, 60-48, and Chester, of Dist. 1, 62-52.

Farrell opens its regular Sect. III league competition Friday against New Castle, which was dumped in a Lions tournament semifinal by Chester, 60-35.

Meanwhile, at the other end of the state Palmerton tops in Dist. 11, has coasted through its early season card undefeated, collecting victories against such competition as usually strong Easton, 35-23; Coaldale, 72-40, and Bethlehem, 53-50.

Palmerton opens its home Lehigh Valley League action Friday against White Hall, a team the eastern champs defeated, 46-40, in a holiday tournament.

Altoona Highly Rated

In Dist. 6 Altoona will turn to full-scale campaigning for a repeat on the area title in a game against traditional foe Johnstown.

The Altoona club is smarting from a 48-33 loss to Charleroi, in the finals of the Cambria County War Memorial Tournament over the holidays.

The Altoona club is ruled a strong favorite to take Johnstown Friday.

The Johnnies were defeated in the Cambria tournament consolation game by Yeoman, of Dist. 1, 64-54. In a semifinal game Altoona eliminated Yeoman, 76-75.

Both Altoona and Johnstown play independent of any league and both are strong enough to seem assured of places in district title playoffs. An independent school must win slightly better than six of every 10 games on its schedule to be eligible for PIAA playoffs.

Central Penn Action

In other action Reading, the defending Dist. 3 champion, opens Central Penn League competition at home to Harrisburg's William Penn High Wednesday night. Radnor, the Dist. 1 defending champion, also opens its league campaign Wednesday in action against Swarthmore.

In Dist. 10, defending champion Meadville begins Sect. II league play Friday against Warren.

Next week Swoyerville, defending Dist. 2 king, begins its North League series against Wilkes-Barre Twp. Jan. 6. The same day Williamsport, Dist. 4 defending titlist, opens its quest for the magic number of wins against Shamokin.

LICENSED TO WED

James F. Brady, Warwick, R. 1, and Marianne L. Sanders, Emmitsburg, have secured a marriage license in Frederick. Another license was issued in Frederick to Donald E. Flax, Emmitsburg, and Shirley A. Gilbert, Gettysburg.

Weddings

Sheridan — Cashman

The wedding of Miss Shirley Ann Cashman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Cashman, Lancaster, and Edward T. Sheridan, Jr., son of Mrs. Edward T. Sheridan, Plainfield, N. J., and the late Edward T. Sheridan, took place Saturday at 2 o'clock in the Broad Street Methodist Church, Lancaster.

The Rev. Gerald F. Crowell Jr. officiated at the double-ring ceremony, during which Gordon Merritt Eby was organist.

Mrs. George E. Lund Jr., sister of the bridegroom, North Plainfield, N. J., was matron of honor, and the bridegroom was Miss Wilfred K. Shearer of Camp Hill.

Best man was George E. Lund Jr., brother-in-law of the bridegroom, North Plainfield. Ushers were George M. Van Istendal, Collingswood, N. J.; Charles Gerber, Newark, N. J., and Alan M. Cashman, brother of the bride, Lancaster.

A reception was held in the church social rooms. The bridal pair will reside in Gettysburg.

A graduate of McCaskey High School, the bride is a senior at Gettysburg College, where she is majoring in psychology. She is a member of Chi Omega social sorority. Her husband graduated from Plainfield High School and is a senior at the same college. He is a business administration major and a member of Phi Kappa Psi social fraternity.

The school term of 1926-27 found Dr. Keefauver as administrative head of a fourth class school district that included only the Borough of Gettysburg. Under his jurisdiction was a faculty of 32 secondary and elementary teachers, a total student body of 1,043 students, and five school buildings. The school board was composed of five members, tax rate was 18 mills plus $3 per capita tax. For this new school term, G. W. LeFever had been elected high school principal, with Miss Annie M. Hale as assistant principal, and Eugene Martin as physical education instructor and athletic coach. The old high school at the corner of Hanover and York Sts. had its name changed to Lincoln School.

Opened First Cafeteria

The most outstanding innovation for the school term of 1927-28 was the opening of a cafeteria in the high school building with Mrs. Minnie Graby as manager. In May, 1928, the school board adopted a new course of study for the high school as prepared by Dr. Keefauver.

Toward the end of 1940 Dr. Keefauver was instructed to get in touch with the firm of J. D. Hamm, Architects, to obtain information regarding both the building of a separate new building and an addition to the old building to accommodate a Junior High School.

The year 1946 was another memorable one for Dr. Keefauver. He was honored by another unanimous election as district superintendent. The same year witnessed the adoption of a Junior-Senior High School set-up for interscholastic athletics, a $190 flat emergency increase in salary for all regular teachers, and the approval of an extra pay for extra duties schedule for professional employees.

Toward the end of 1940 Dr. Keefauver was instructed to get in touch with the firm of J. D. Hamm, Architects, to obtain information regarding both the building of a separate new building and an addition to the old building to accommodate a Junior High School.

"In 1947 came the state mandated salary schedule and all teachers in this district were placed under the new schedule. The single salary scale for both elementary and secondary school teachers had at last become a reality. This year saw also the first steps taken toward consolidation and the establishment of a joint school district. The respective school boards of Cumberland Township and Gettysburg borough held several meetings concerning the possibilities of forming a jointure.

Jointure Formed

"But it was in 1948 that a series of preliminary meetings were held that led finally to the formation of the present set-up of the Gettysburg Joint School District comprising the school districts of Gettysburg, Cumberland Township, Strabane Township, Franklin Township, and Mount Joy Township.

"With the formation of the jointure the number of school buildings under Dr. Keefauver's jurisdiction jumped from four to 14, 10 of which were the little old red school house variety. Enrollment of students increased proportionately from 1,276 to 1,729 and the number of professional employees, which had increased from 32 to 49 during the years 1926 of our school system during a period of great expansion in student enrollment, enlargement of the physical setup, increase in the number of professional employees, and numerous changes in curriculum and courses of study.

"In retrospect we propose to highlight the accomplishments of his administration during his tenure of office by a little journey into the past.

Elected in March, 1956

"In May, 1925, the Gettysburg School Board passed a resolution calling for the purchase of land and the erection of a new high school building for use of the inhabitants of the Gettysburg School District.

This new building was destined to become G.H.S., the IV-High Street Building, Mende and Lincoln Buildings, all having housed G.H.S. at one time or another.

First World War II

"The first years of World War II brought about air raid precautions for safe-guarding children in Gettysburg schools as well as the cooperation of the school authorities and the professional employees with the Draft Board for registration under the Selective Training and Service Act of 1940. This was also the period of scrap metal drives and saving stamps campaign participated in actively by the school children of the Gettysburg Public Schools.

"In 1951 plans were being laid with respect to providing adequate facilities in G.H.S. for grades 7 through 12 and to include an auditorium fully equipped and able to seat 1,500 persons, as well as the possibilities of abandoning both High Street Building and Lincoln Building and the building and location of a new elementary school close to the present high school.

To Junior-Senior Setup

"The later years found the school children and the professional staff of the local school district under the guidance of Dr. Keefauver as the administrative head of our school system. On March 18, 1926, Dr. Keefauver was unanimously elected to the position of supervising principal of the Gettysburg Public Schools.

"In 1952 the transfer of the 7th and 8th grades from Lincoln School to Gettysburg High School was completed, where with the 9th grade they constituted the Junior High School, and G.H.S. officially became the Gettysburg Senior-Junior High School. School business was literally becoming 'big business,' and consequently, to assist Dr. Keefauver in his many-sided administrative duties, Kenneth G. Reinhart Jr. was elected as business manager of the Gettysburg Joint School District.

Distinguished Record

"In 1954 Dr. Keefauver was re-elected unanimously for his sixth consecutive four-year term as district superintendent. With his retirement at the end of this month he will have performed 31 years of continuous and faithful service as administrative head of our local public schools, a distinguished record of accomplishment as a school administrator.

"Of all his years of service to Gettysburg and vicinity the year 1955 was perhaps the milestone in his career as an educator and administrator. This year witnessed the opening of the new Keefauver Elementary School, named in his honor. This building, containing 20 classrooms, a cafeteria, and an all-purpose room, was built at a cost of $750,000. At the same time the new alterations and additions to Gettysburg High School were opened for use. A modern, splendidly equipped library, fourteen new classrooms, and a spacious auditorium with 1,500 seats, built at a cost of $85,000. Gone but far from forgotten was High Street School Building, sold at public sale in October of this year, after 98 years of faithful service as a public school building.

HOLIDAY DEATH TOTAL CLIMBS; RATE IS LOWER

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The national death toll from traffic accidents this new year's holiday climbed higher today but at a rate much slower than the record-shattering Christmas week-end.

With the 102 hour holiday more than half completed, traffic mishaps had accounted for 213 lives. In addition, there were 24 deaths from fires and 37 from miscellaneous accidents for an overall total of 244.

The accident count began at 6 p.m. (local time) Friday and continues until midnight Tuesday.

706 At Christmas

The carnage on the nation's highways during the Christmas holiday — also a four-day period — left 706 persons dead. The total cost in lives from all accidents reached 884, also a new record. Fires killed 54 of the 178 non-traffic victims.

Ned H. Dearborn, president of the National Safety Council, said late last night he noted "an ominous trend in the traffic toll."

"We hope the trend can be halted by a resumption of the care and common sense that marked the earlier hours of the holiday," he said.

Most Deadly Hours Ahead

"The shock and enormity of the Christmas toll," was cited by Dearborn as a primary reason for the lower New Year weekend highway death rate.

However, safety officials said the most deadly time on American roads during the current holiday is New Year's Eve and New Year's Day. Celebrants crowd the highways and the incidence of drunk driving usually increases sharply, they said.

The NSC predicted that 490 persons would die on the highways during the long new year weekend. The record toll is 407, set in the four-day 1952-53 New Year period.

Safety experts estimated that about 35 to 40 million motorists will be on the road during the current holiday. This compares with more than 45 million in the yuletide period, they said.

Property Transfers

The following property transfers have been recorded in the office of the register and recorder:

Joseph J. and Mary L. Baker, Nashville, Tenn., sold to the Bream Realty Company, Gettysburg, for $25,000 a property in Gettysburg.

Cora G. Hankey, Chambersburg, sold to George T. Steinberger, Fairfield, for $3,900 a property on Washington St. Fairfield.

Joseph R. and Helen B. Eden, Cumberland Twp., sold to Mildred E. Eden, Franklin Twp., for $300 a property in Franklin Twp.

Elizabeth Lippy O'Neill and Ruth Lippy Shafeleiter, executors of the will of Raber C. Sell, late of Conewago Twp., sold to Virginia Sell, surviving spouse of Raber C. Sell, Conewago Twp., three properties in Heidelberg Twp., Conewago Twp. and West Manheim Twp.

15 East German H.S. Boys Flee To West

BERLIN (AP) — All 15 boys in an East German high school's senior class have slipped across the border into West Berlin. They fled to escape Communist reprisals for a five-minute silence they staged in class to protest Soviet intervention in Hungary.

The 15 will be flown to West Germany and given an opportunity to finish high school there.

The boys are from the small town of Storkow, southeast of Berlin.

They made their silent protest Oct. 29, during a history class, after the first intervention of Soviet troops in Hungary.

"NO RESOLUTIONS"

Each year at just about this time . . . folks make new resolutions . . . trying to solve problems with . . . some hasty rash conclusions . . . they say they won't do this or that . . . and swear by stars above . . . to line the coming days with things . . . like friendliness and love . . . now this old custom I'll admit . . . has many points of worth . . . for things that tend to foster good . . . spread peace throughout the earth . . . but as I look to years gone by . . . and think of vows now broken . . . I do believe this year I'll leave . . . my promises unspoken . . . I'll make no resolutions . . . because somehow I know . . . that when the New Year starts to roll . . . the resolutions go . . . instead I'll ask the Master . . . for faith to do my best . . . and strength to make me equal to . . . the roughest kind of test.

REPUBLICAN CHIEFS CONFER WITH IKE TODAY

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate and House Republican chiefs got from President Eisenhower today an outline of his hopes and plans for the nation during the next year.

With the aid of Vice President Nixon, Budget Director Pervival Brundage and all Cabinet members except Secretary of State Dulles and Secretary of Defense Wilson, Eisenhower viewed with the GOP legislators the administration's domestic program for 1957.

That includes matters such as school aid and tax, labor and farm legislation.

Reserved For Tuesday

The big foreign affairs issues—such as standby authority to use U.S. troops in the Middle East, foreign aid and help for Hungarian refugees—might come up for some discussion, but were primarily reserved for tomorrow. That's when Democratic congressional leaders, too, are invited to a White House briefing.

THREE-CAR CRASH

Automobiles operated by Mrs. Anna Neiman, Abbottstown R. 1, and Herman L. Jacoby, 44, Hanover R. 4, were damaged in a collision Friday about 1:55 p.m. in Hanover. Police said Jacoby pulled from a parking place and sideswiped the right side of the Neiman car and then hit the machine of Wendell B. Yingling, Hanover, parked on the east side of the street. Police estimated damage at $75 to the Neiman car, $30 to Jacoby's and none to Yingling's machine.

Raised Professional Standards

In 1936 the athletic football field at GHS was designated as Kurtz Field in honor of the donors, Mr. and Mrs. William Kurtz.

During 1937 the agriculture department was established at Gettysburg High School with Elmer Schriver as agriculture teacher. Four years' college training for prospective teachers became mandatory in the Gettysburg School District that year.

Miss Pearl Frei of New York City was maid of honor.

Joseph Yodzis was best man for his brother and ushers were Thomas Yodzis, brothers of the bridegroom, and Eugene Glowacki of Mt. Carmel.

The reception was held at the Harrisburg Country Club.

The bride, a graduate of the Katherine Sweeney Day School and the College of Notre Dame of Maryland, is a member of the faculty of the Herbert Hoover Elementary School. She is a member of the Junior League of Harrisburg.

Mr. Yodzis, an alumnus of Mt. Carmel High School, was graduated from Mt. St. Mary's College, Emmitsburg, and attended Dickinson School of Law. He is associated with Nationwide Insurance Co.

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) —

The janitor at George Wythe Junior High School put a slightly off beat request to the Hampton School Board. He asked the board to reduce his $155 a month salary to $150 so the size of his school income would not jeopardize his social security benefits. The board took under advisement the request of the janitor — fellow named Wealthy Agee.

RATE FARRELL, PALMERTON AS TEAMS TO BEAT

HARRISBURG (AP) — After a month of warm-up competition and holiday tournaments, Pennsylvania's scholastic basketball teams this week get down to brass tacks in league and district play.

Two and a half months away are the district playoffs—the first major step toward regional and state titles. But in the interim, league competition must be overcame.

Again this season the team to beat in the west is Farrell, while in the east defending eastern champion and state runnerup Palmerton looks stronger than ever.

Both teams are sparked by 1956 all state players. Farrell is paired by towering Don Jones, while Palmerton features sharpshooting Bob Mikvy.

Farrell got off to a slow start in early season competition, dropping contests to Monessen, also a WPIAL club, and Altoona, the defending Dist. 6 champion and strongest bet to repeat for that district's title.

However, the Steelers bounced back in holiday play to win their fifth consecutive Farrell Lions Club Tourney crown, trimming Duquesne, 60-48, and Chester, of Dist. 1, 62-52.

Farrell opens its regular Sect. III league competition Friday against New Castle, which was dumped in a Lions tournament semifinal by Chester, 60-35.

Meanwhile, at the other end of the state Palmerton tops in Dist. 11, has coasted through its early season card undefeated, collecting victories against such competition as usually strong Easton, 35-23, Coaladale, 72-40, and Bethlehem, 53-50.

Palmerton opens its home Lehigh Valley League action Friday against White Hall, a team the eastern champs defeated, 46-40, in a holiday tournament.

TRUCKLOAD OF GIFTS TO NOELS

A fire truck load of Christmas presents was delivered to the family of Mrs. Dorothy Noel, Green Springs, Saturday afternoon as a result of the appeal of the Adams County Fire Chiefs Association to provide a "Christmas" for the family of youngsters who missed Christmas when their five-year-old sister was badly injured by a shotgun wound Christmas eve.

From the great quantity of articles donated by residents of the county, firemen picked toys suitable for the youngsters, plus clothes that fitted the sizes of the children who range from four years to 17. Ten of the children still reside with the widowed mother.

Bernard B. Miller, Gettysburg R. 1, president of the fire chiefs, again expressing his thanks to the public for its "outstanding response," said, "I hope it is agreeable to all, but we were forced to make a decision when far more articles were donated than ever anticipated. There was much more than the Noels could use, and even after we tried to cancel the appeal Friday night, quantities of gifts arrived. We loaded a truck with things suitable for the Noels and the rest we plan to distribute to three other families with small children in the county who are in need. Cash donations toward the Noels will be used to help pay off a sum of money owed by Mrs. Noel on a washing machine, a necessity in a family with so many small youngsters."

It is unfortunate that all who gave could not have been present to have seen the looks in the eyes of the Noel children as the toys were handed off the truck to them. It was without a doubt the greatest Christmas the youngsters ever had, and Mrs. Noel was even more grateful for the clothing for the youngsters and herself and the food. Gifts even included a cord of wood."

RETIREES FROM TOWN'S EMPLOY

Nelson Joseph Shank, 142 W. High St., today will retire as a borough employee when he concludes his day's work with the borough highway crew.

An employee of the town for 27 years, he began his duty under the late Augustus Tawney.

For many years a farmer near Bigerville, Mr. Shank also for many years operated a blacksmith shop in Bigerville, near the present Bigerville Garage.

A daughter, Miss Viola Shank, an employee of the G. C. Murphy Co., with whom he resides, helped him in blacksmithing when she was a youngster. The family moved to Gettysburg in 1926 and in 1929 Mr. Shank joined the ranks of borough highway employees.

Interested in gardening and carpentry, he plans during his retirement to spend more time making chairs for sale to the public. In recent years he has made a number of chairs for home and relatives' use. Gardening is also among plans for retirement.

He will be 76 April 30.

Fifteen Killed

The Charleston base said it would fly an investigation team and others to Dhahran this afternoon. It said the plane was a total loss.

The base reported the plane carried 29 passengers and 12 crewmen.

A spokesman said a message with a list of survivors was garbled, but he had made out 26 entries in the list. He added that presumably there were mostly American military personnel aboard.

On Regular Flight

Capt. Ervin R. Breslauer, public information officer, said the plane was on a regular flight for the Military Air Transportation Service from its base at Charleston to Dhahran via McGuire Air Force Base, New Jersey, Lakes Field in the Bronx, and Tripoli Libya.

He said his information over MATS wires from Dhahran was that the plane crashed one mile east of the field and burned at 11 p.m. eastern standard time, 3 p.m. Dhahran time.

Wedding

Herb-Eck

St. John's Catholic Church Third St. B. 1. was the scene Saturday, Dec. 29, of the wedding of Delores A. E. Fox and Ralph George H. Eck. The bride, a graduate of Marmora, a town in the municipality of the late R. H. Fox, was married to R. 1.

John V. and Mrs. E. Fox, Ford, was best man. On the maid of honor was Mrs. Joseph F. M. T. Ford.

Robert D. and Mrs. E. Fox, Ford, was best man. On the maid of honor was Mrs. Joseph F. M. T. Ford.

A wedding breakfast was held at the bride's home for 47 guests. The bride is a 19-year-old graduate of Delone Catholic High School, McSherrystown. The groom was employed by the Hanover M. F. Co. in the electric section of the company's factory at 17 Third St. Hanover.

New Year's Day: Our carrier desires us to apprise our town patrons, that he has been spinning out a few ideas, in the way of a jingling appeal to their liberality, not that he has any fears on that score, for all his predecessors agree in the fact that they cannot be surpassed in generosity, but merely to inform them that he will be "about" on Thursday morning.

The late "cold spell" has reduced out Woodpile so much, that we have become a little apprehensive of a scarcity ere long, and we would be gratified if some of our country friends, who have more than they need of a good article, would "hitch up," and relieve us
of our anxiety in this particular.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Miracles".

Today's Talk

ALL IN ITS STRIDE

The happiest and most contented person is the one who doesn't flitter from day to day because of needless petty troubles and irritations. He takes things in their stride. Come what may he stands on sound ground, unafraid and un-worried.

We must get used to emergencies and face them all with faith and courage. If we are daytravelling when the troublesome times arrive, we can face them in our stride and carry on! We must live in an atmosphere of expectancy, and learn to "never mind!"

It is far better to engage our minds in the thought of good times ahead, happy surprises, and good fortune than to brood upon the unhappiness that might be our lot.

Our cue should be to so prepared that no matter what comes to challenge us, we can be in a state of readiness, anyway.

I was impressed with an incident that occurred in the life of Thoreau.
He was ill and his friends worried about his condition. One day one of them suggested that he should
"make his peace with God."

Thoreau replied: "We hain't ever quarreled!" One of the reasons for this man's greatness was that he took things day by day in his stride, absorbing the beauties of nature and exhaling everyone to live the simple life. Days and events pass so quickly but from them we should gather precious experiences to file away in our memory to enrich the few, or many, days ahead. Work toward the free mind.

A mind all cluttered up with worries and unfinished duties gets so little enjoyment out of life.
Wherever you run into a problem or unpleasant experience don't let it get you down. Master its lesson.

Taste the bitter with the sweet in life. To remain happy and strong, we should all take the events of every day in our stride. If we were to do this we would serve minor injuries.

SAY RUSSIANS
LEND HUNGARY
FIFTY MILLION

By RICHARD R. KASISCHKE

BUDAPEST — The Communist regime says Soviet Russia has loaned Hungary 50 million dollars, but that much more help is needed to rebuild the revolution-shattered economy.

Nepszabadsag, the newspaper of Premier Janos Kadar's Communist party, said other Communist bloc countries of Eastern Europe have also promised help and that "there have been preliminary talks also with certain capitalist countries and we have already contacted some others."

It expressed hope that "Western countries also will contribute substantial loans to alleviate our economic difficulties."

Some economists say it will take 400 million dollars in hard currency to put Hungary back on its feet. The government is reported to feel it must seek much of the necessary aid from the West because most of the East-
European Communist countries are having their own difficulties.

Grown old? Well, perhaps you could put it that way.

The brown hair I had as a boy now
is gray;

But Christmas returns as a season
of joy

And if the heart matters then I'm

Sugar, Rose, Cotton, Orange Bowl Games Set For Tuesday; 3 Minor Bowl Tilts End Season

By ED CORKIGAN

The college football season reaches a ringing crescendo tomorrow when the four major post-season bowl games — the Sugar, Rose, Cotton and Orange — are played with a pot of gold and untold glory awaiting the winners.

All four will be televised nationally.

Here is the lineup:

Sugar Bowl at New Orleans — Tennessee (10-0) vs Baylor (8-2), ABC-TV 2 p.m. EST.

Three Lesser Bowls Too

Rose Bowl at Pasadena, Calif. — Iowa (8-1) vs Oregon State (7-2), NBC-TV, 5 p.m. EST.

Cotton Bowl at Dallas — Syracuse (7-1) vs Texas Christian (7-3), NBC-TV 2 p.m. EST.

Orange Bowl at Miami — Colorado (7-2-1) vs Clemson (7-1-2), CBS-TV, 2 p.m. EST.

In addition, there are three lesser bowl games on the schedule — the Sun Bowl at El Paso, Tex., pairing George Washington (7-1-1) and Texas Western (9-0), the Prairie View Bowl at Houston, sending Prairie View A&M (4-5) against Texas Southern (8-1) and the Tangerine Bowl at Orlando, Fla., pitting Mississippi Southern (7-2-1) against West Texas State (7-2), in a night game.

Tough One For Baylor

Perhaps the most difficult bowl task will be faced by Baylor, which could do no better than third in the Southwest Conference. The Bears must face, in Tennessee, the second-ranked team in the country in the final Associated Press poll, All-America Johnny Majors and a completely unfamiliar offense.

Tennessee is favored by 7½ points, and a capacity crowd of 81,000 is expected for the 23rd renewal of the classic.

Oregon State Coach Tommy Prothro, not only must keep an anxious eye on the odds — his team is an eight-point underdog — but he's fighting another battle, that of lethargy.

Not Guessing

"The kids just don't seem to be thinking about football," said the coach of the Pacific Coast Conference champions.

Iowa Coach Forest Eversherski, who thinks the teams are about evenly matched, would not hazard a guess as to his club's mental attitude.

About 100,000 are expected for the game.

A coach who claims the favorite's role is Abe Martin of Texas Christian, whose charges are a 4-point choice over Syracuse.

Said he:

"I can't see where we should be the favorites. We were second in the Southwest Conference, while Syracuse is champion of the East and rated eighth in the nation. We have no rating."

Colorado Confident

Syracuse coach Ben Schwartzwalder was as much concerned about the weather as he was about the opposition. He is hoping the temperature won't be too hot because "I want to leave the first team in there as long as possible."

A crowd of 60,000 is expected.

Perhaps the most confident of all coaches is Dallas Ward, whose Colorado team is favored by 3 points over Clemson in the Orange Bowl.

"My boys fully expect to bring home Colorado's first bowl victory," he said.

Frank Howard, the Clemson player, acknowledged that Colorado would be a slight choice. But he said his team "is about right."

A crowd of about 69,000 — 7,000 short of a sellout — is expected.

REDS TROUNCE BARONS 6 TO 1

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The high flying Providence Reds held a six point lead in the American Hockey League today and they show no signs of letting up.

The Reds extended their home winning streak to nine games last night by trouncing the Cleveland Barons, 6-1.

The Reds broke a 1-1 tie midway through the second stanza, scoring three goals in as many minutes. Jim Bartlett, Providence, moved to Paul.

He left wing, put his club out of sight in the last frame, tallied a 2-0 lead.

Hershey scored three goals within two minutes, early in the game and coasted home again. Buffalo, 5-1. The score was 3-1 when the Bears moved in with their three quickies, making it 4-1 at the end of the first period.

The Springfield Indians, deep in the league cellar, made it two in a row—their longest streak of the season—in turning back the Rochester Americans, 3-1. Grahae Don Simmons starred for the Indians with 22 saves, most of them on hard close shots.

RED HOT GIANTS SCORCH BEARS 47 - 7 TO GRAB PRO GRID TITLE

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK — The New York Giants were red hot and the Chicago Bears and 56,836 were frozen stiff. That's the story of the 1956 National Football League championship playoff in a nutshell.

The Giants skipped over the frozen turf of Yankee Stadium in their white basketball shoes yesterday on the way to a shocking 47-7 victory over the Bears who went into the game three-point favorites.

Striking for a touchdown and field goal in the first five minutes, the Giants amassed a 34-7 lead. The Bears, who had rallied to tie the Giants 17-17 in a regular season game, Nov. 25, never were able to get back into the ball game.

"Just Didn't Have It"

"They were up. We were down," said Paddy Driscoll, completing his first season as head coach of the Bears. "There's nothing you can say about a defeat like this. We just didn't have it."

Saturday's snow and the frigid temperature that swung from 18 to 22 degrees kept the crowd below the expected 65,000. Despite the cold and the strong wind, the partisan crowd enjoyed the rout of the mighty Bears.

The Giants, starved for a title since 1938, had little mercy after their 18 years of bitter frustration. Although Giant Coach Jim Lee Howell did send his reserves into action in the final period, they never slacked their relentless attack.

Use Basketball Shoes

The basketball shoes gave the Giants solid footing on the hard field and they broke away fast. The Bears were similar shoes but they had rubber cleats.

"We had just as suitable shoes as they," said Coach Driscoll of the Bears. "They ran on it (the frozen field). We didn't."

On Radio And TV

Starting at 10 p.m. (EST), the bout will be broadcast and telecast coast to coast by ABC. The New York-Philadelphia area will be blacked out of the TV.

Undefeated Carles Ortiz, a 20-year-old lightweight from New York out of Puerto Rico, guns for his 19th straight victory tonight at New York's St. Nicholas Arena. He is a 5-9 favorite over Gale Kerwin of Valley Stream, N. Y., in the television 10-round (DuMont-TV, 10:30 p.m. EST).

Azajman booted a 43-yard field goal later in the first period after Jim Patton intercepted an Ed Brown pass. Alex Webster scored twice in the second period on short runs, the second coming shortly after a 49-yard pass play from quarterback Charlie Conerly.

The Bears had picked up their lone touchdown in the second when Casares went nine through the middle but Webster's second score and Henry Moore's end zone recovery after Ray Beck blocked Brown's punt made it 3-7 at the half.

Conerly threw nine yards to Kyle Rora for a third period score and Jim Gifford on a 12-yard play in the final period. Azajman added five placers but missed one, his first as a Giant.

LIBRARIAN ENDS LONG DAILY TRIP

NEW YORK — Mrs. Mary B. Quam gave up the grand today. For seven years she had commuted nearly six hours a day from Park, Pa., to her job in the New York Public Library, a daily round trip of some 240 miles.

Mrs. Quam has taken a new job with the library of Villanova University, where her husband, Norman, is chairman of the chemistry department. She took her commuting after they moved to Park.

She is a veteran of 25 years service with the library.

She has, for some more than 8,000 hours, commuted to the even years. "But commuting isn't bad," she said, adding, "I've done more reading and correspondence than I ever found time for before."

Her commuting day began at 4:30 a.m. She got home around 7 p.m.

OVER 50 CAGE TOURNEYS END; KANSAS AND N.C. STAY UNBEATEN

By DON WEISS

The Associated Press

Their holiday tournament capers just about over, the nation's college basketball teams now can turn their full attention to the conference races that, for the most part, determine the "play-for-keeps" tourney lineups in March.

The backlash of a frantic four or five days of Christmas week activity that saw a nationwide assortment of more than 50 tournaments come and go was a distinct impression that nothing is so certain in the college game as its uncertainty.

Close Races Forecast

A few favorites won in the major competitions but there were just enough upsets to promise the best set of conference races in several years.

And the best of them all could turn out to be in the leagues where the two current national stickouts Kansas and North Carolina, perform.

The top-ranked Kansas Jayhawks, for all of Wilt (The Stilt) Chamberlain's capabilities and the team's victory in last week's warmup tournament, have plenty to fear in the Big Seven Conference.

Iowa State, for instance, shackled Wilt with a meager 12 points and came within a late desperation shot of whipping the No. 1 team in The Associated Press poll. Colorado, too, can be a threat when it is at full strength.

The Buffs were minus two key regulars when the Jayhawks rolled away in the Conference tournament finals, 80-54 Saturday night. Coach Frank McGuire of North Carolina's second-rated Tar Heels will be arraigned today before U. S. Commissioner C. S. Bentley Pike.

Agents said Bragnola surrendered meekly in a cocktail lounge on Chicago's South Side. He was unarmed.

ROBINSON IS UNDERDOG FOR FULLMER FIGHT

By MURRAY ROSE

The Associated Press

It's a unique occasion when Ray Robinson, fighting in his own class, finds himself an underdog. But that's the way it will be Wednesday night in Madison Square Garden when the onetime dazzler, now 36, defends his middleweight crown against strong 25 year old Gene Fullmer of West Jordan, Utah.

Robinson, starved for a title since 1938, had little mercy after their 18 years of bitter frustration. Although Giant Coach Jim Lee Howell did send his reserves into action in the final period, they never slacked their relentless attack.

Fractures Leg

Swaps invaded the East, but was withdrawn from the $100,000 United Nations Handicap at Atlantic City because of a slight injury. Then the big 4-year-old chestnut fractured the cannon bone in his left rear leg at Garden State Park during a workout, and was knocked out of racing for the season—perhaps permanently.

Nashua, also a 4-year-old and owned by the Leslie B. Combs II syndicate, was retired Oct. 13 to stud after breaking the American record in the Jockey Club Gold Cup at Belmont. The 1955 American Champion won 6 of 10 races in 1956, for a total of 22 wins in 30 starts. His earnings hit $1,288,565, as he passed Citation, the previous money leader, who was retired in 1951 with $1,065,760.

Swaps, owned by Rex Ellsworth who sold half interest in his start to John W. Gaibraith last fall, set four and equalled a fifth world record. He was only twice out of the money during his 25 races over a three-year period, and earned $402,400 by winning eight of 10 starts in 1956. That brought his money total to $848,900, fourth highest in the world.

The 3-year-old Champion cup was settled early at Florida's St. Petersburg, where the big Florida Derby was won by the 3-year-old "Big Red" (The St. Louis). The 2-year-old "Big Red" (The St. Louis) was second to Citation in the Kentucky Derby, finished second to Citation in the Preakness and came back to win the Belvoir.

Sugar, Rose, Cotton, Orange Bowl Games Set For Tuesday; 3 Minor Bowl Tilts End Season

By ED CORRIGAN

The college football season reaches a ringing crescendo tomorrow when the four major post-season bowl games — the Sugar, Rose, Cotton and Orange — are played with a pot of gold and untold glory awaiting the winners.

All four will be televised nationally.

Here is the lineup:

Sugar Bowl at New Orleans — Texas (10-0) vs. Baylor (8-2), ABC-TV 2 p.m., EST.

Three Lesser Bowls Too

Rose Bowl at Pasadena, Calif. — Iowa (8-1) vs. Oregon State (7-2-1), NBC-TV, 5 p.m., EST.

Cotton Bowl at Dallas — Syracuse (7-1) vs. Texas Christian (7-3), NBC-TV 2 p.m., EST.

Orange Bowl at Miami — Colorado (7-2-1) vs. Clemson (7-1-2), CBS-TV, 2 p.m., EST.

In addition, there are three lesser bowl games on the schedule — the Sun Bowl at El Paso, Tex., pairing George Washington (7-1) and Texas Western (9-0); the Prairie View Bowl at Houston sending Prairie View A&M (4-5) against Texas Southern (8-1) and the Tangerine Bowl at Orlando, Fla., pitting Mississippi Southern (7-1-1) against West Texas State (7-2), in night game.

Tough One For Baylor

Perhaps the most difficult bowl task will be faced by Baylor, which could do no better than third in the Southwest Conference. The Bears must face, in Tennessee, the second-ranked team in the country in the final Associated Press poll, All-America Johnnny Major, and a completely unfamiliar offense.

Tennessee is favored by 7½ points, and a capacity crowd of 81,000 is expected for the 23rd renewal of the classic.

Oregon State Coach Tommy Prothro, not only must keep an anxious eye on the odds — his team is an eight-point underdog — but he's fighting another battle, that of lethargy.

Not Guessing

"The kids just don't seem to be thinking about football," said the coach of the Pacific Coast Conference champions.

Iowa Coach Forest Evashevski, who thinks the teams are about evenly matched, would not hazard a guess as to his club's mental attitude.

About 100,000 are expected for the game.

A coach who disclaims the favorite's role is Abe Martin of Texas Christian, whose charges are a 4-point choice over Syracuse.

Said he:

Colorado Confident

Syracuse coach Ben Schwartzwalder was as much concerned about the weather as he was about the opposition. He is hoping the temperature won't be too hot because "I want to leave the first team in there as long as possible."

A crowd of 60,000 is expected.

Perhaps the most confident of all coaches is Dallas Ward, whose Colorado team is favored by 3 points over Clemson in the Orange Bowl.

"My boys fully expect to bring home Colorado's first bowl victory," he said.

Frank Howard, the Clemson pilot, acknowledged that Colorado would be a slight choice. But he said his team, "is about right."

A crowd of about 69,000 — 7,000 short of a sellout — is expected.

STATE COURT GIVES DECISION IN PHONE CASE

PENNSYLVANIA (AP) — Pennsylvania's Superior Court says that a utility authorized to provide telephone service in a specified area cannot limit its operations without approval of the Public Utility Commission.

This decision was rendered by the seven-judge appellate court on Friday in rejecting an appeal by the Wattsburg Telephone Cooperative Assn. for an injunction restraining General Telephone Co. of Pennsylvania from constructing lines and furnishing service in the Erie County area served by Wattsburg.

General contended, and the PUC agreed, that Wattsburg did not have exclusive territorial rights in Wayne and Amity Townships as it claimed.

Wattsburg had argued that it had obtained a written agreement from General that it would not encroach upon the territory served by Wattsburg.

General, formerly the Mutual Telephone Co., was incorporated in 1897 with charter power to render telephone service in the city of Erie and Millcreek Twp. In 1921 it was granted additional authority by PUC to serve all of Erie, Warren and Crawford counties.

"Considering the testimony of subscribers in the area as to the unsatisfactory service or failure to obtain needed service from Wattsburg Telephone Cooperative Assn.," Judge Harold Erwin said

Harney

The nine children in Mrs. George Marshall's Sunday School Class of St. Paul's Church made Christmas trimmings each Sunday for several weeks. Sunday morning they placed the trimmings on a tree provided in an unanimous opinion, "we are all agreed the commission properly found the public interest is served by the extension of the (General) company's service into the disputed area."

FINNEGAN BACK AS SECRETARY OF COMMONWEALTH

HARRISBURG (AP) — James A. Finnegan, 50, Saturday embarked on his second stint as secretary of the commonwealth after a year-long absence from the post to direct the presidential campaign of Adlai Stevenson.

Finnegan was installed on Friday by Henry E. Harner, who resigned the position to become deputy secretary of the commonwealth shortly before Finnegan was sworn in.

The Philadelphia Democrat's absence resulted in a $5,000 a year salary increase over the $15,000 a year he received when he resigned Dec. 15, 1955.

Harner Steps Down

The 1955-56 Legislature passed a law, boosting salaries of cabinet officers to $20,000, but applying only for officials taking their posts after the effective date of the law.

"I am happy to have Jim Finnegan back in the cabinet helping to bring good government to Pennsylvania," Leader told some 50 well-wishers on hand for Finnegan's re-inauguration.

Harner chose to become deputy secretary at a salary expected to

Mrs. Marshall. They then presented the decorated tree to Mrs. Margaret Haines, who has been a shut-in for five years. Earl Angell took pictures of the group. Each child also presented a gift to Mrs. Haines, and then they sang Christmas songs for her.

Christmas Day guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Crumbacker were: Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Smeak, Westminster; Mrs. Carrie Bankert, Tannetown; Mr. and Mrs. George Frean and daughter, Diane, Mrs. Alice Smith, Mrs. Madeline Smith, Littlestown; Mrs. Mable Coates, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Shanbrook and sons, Littlestown; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Kettnerman, Gettysburg; Mrs. Alice Kettnerman, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Slick, Littlestown; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kricher, and family, Littlestown.

Those who played "Santa Claus" at the home of Samuel D. Snider and sister, Ruth, the past week were Mrs. Luther Fox, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer LeGore, Leo Strickhouser, Mrs. Carl Baumgardner, Mr. and L. H. Kalbfleisch, Wilbert Hess and Mr. Keeper, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Shildt and family, the Monocacy Valley Memorial Aux., WFV Post 6918, and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Six Jr.

FINNEGAN BACK AS SECRETARY OF COMMONWEALTH

HARRISBURG (AP) — James A. Finnegan, 50, Saturday embarked on his second stint as secretary of the commonwealth after a year-long absence from the post to direct the presidential campaign of Adlai Stevenson.

Finnegan was installed on Friday by Henry E. Harner, who resigned the position to become deputy secretary of the commonwealth shortly before Finnegan was sworn in.

The Philadelphia Democrat's absence resulted in a $5,000 a year salary increase over the $15,000 a year he received when he resigned Dec. 15, 1955.

Harner Steps Down

The 1955-56 Legislature passed a law boosting salaries of cabinet officers to $20,000, but applying only for officials taking their posts after the effective date of the law. "I am happy to have Jim Finnegan back in the cabinet helping to bring good government to Pennsylvania," Leader told some 50 well-wishers on hand for Finnegan's re-inauguration.

Harner chose to become deputy secretary at a salary expected to

Mrs. Marshall. They then presented the decorated tree to Mrs. Margaret Haines, who has been shut in for five years. Earl Angell took pictures of the group. Each child also presented a gift to Mrs. Haines, and then they sang Christmas songs for her.

Christmas Day guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Crumbacker were: Mr. and Mrs. Lefroy Simek, Westminster; Mrs. Carrie Bankert, Taneytown; Mr. and Mrs. George Fream and daughter, Diane. Mrs. Alice Smith, Mrs. Madeline Smith, Littlestown; Mrs. Mable Coates, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Shanbrook and sons, Littlestown; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Kettnerman, Gettysburg; Mrs. Alice Kettnerman, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Slick, Littlestown; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Krichken and family, Littlestown.

Those who played "Santa Claus" at the home of Samuel D. Snider and sister, Ruth, the past week were Mrs. Luther Fox, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer LeGore, Leo Strickhouse, Mrs. Carl Baumgardner, Mr. and L. H. Kalbifisch, Wilbert Hess and Mr. Keeper, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Shildt and family, the Monocacy Valley Memorial Aux., VFW Post 6918, and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Six Jr.

Mrs. Lillie Moser spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sprankle at Atwood Hess.

Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Clabaugh and daughter, Janet, Bristol, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Horace Clabaugh, Aurora, Ill., are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Clabaugh. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Clutz visited Mr. and Mrs. Wade Brown and family last Thursday.

Martin Reaver of near Littlestown, and sister, Mrs. Harry Sprankle, and Atwood Hess spent Wednesday in Baltimore.

Mr. Goldie Ridinger, Mr. and Mrs. John Ridinger, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Koontz and family visited last Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Shildt and family.

Mrs. Ida Strickhouse is spending the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bridinger.

Mrs. David Little, Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Reaver, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sprankle and Atwood Hess attended the funeral of Mr. Sprankle and Mrs. Reaver's sister, Mrs. Samuel Gantz, on Thursday.

Christmas Day callers with Mrs. Margaret Haines and daughter, Mary, were: Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Haines, Mr. and Mrs. Nevin Ridinger, Mrs. George Clabaugh, Mrs. Edna Snider, Misses Gertrude Ridinger and Ruth Ridinger and Luther Ridinger.

Christmas Day dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Bower and family were: Mr. and Mrs. John Ridinger and son, and Mr. and Mrs. Nevin Ridinger, daughter, Ruth, and son, Daniel.

Surviving New Year's Eve Is More Important Than Enjoying It

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — To most of America's 169 million people the greatest Cinderella second of the year is that tremulous moment at midnight on New Year's Eve.

We hope, however, the striking clock will signal not so much the ashed death of our old dreams but herald the advent of a bright tomorrow when new and better dreams will come true.

But the problem is less how to enjoy New Year's Eve than to survive it.

Danger Of Mass Murder

Our intricate civilization has brought to this brief pinnacle of mass pleasure the danger of mass murder. It has become a task to see the new year out with fun—and yet be sure one has done nothing to keep one's self or one's friends from starting the new year alive and unbandaged.

Here are a few tips on how to get the most enjoyment mileage out of New Year's Eve with the last possible regret:

1. Remember, first of all, that we create most of our sorrows by pressing too hard for impossible joys.

Don't Mix 'Em

2. Don't mix drinks of grape and grain and distilled apples and potatoes.

3. Remember that, although it is a time of teeter-totter—one year dying, another year being born, you should retain the detachment of a midwife: Whatever happens, she keeps on living.

4. Don't mix drinks of grape and grain and distilled apples.

5. If you plan to leave your own home, check your insurance policies and see that they are all paid up.

Have Teetotaller On Hand

6. Don't mix drinks of grape and grain.

7. If you are having a party in your own home, do these things:

A. Don't serve any guest an alcoholic beverage until he has first drunk a 12-ounce glass of cold water or milk to remove any real thirst.

B. If you have a midnight nightcap, immediately announce you are going to entertain the remaining guests with card tricks. This will sober up any crowd, and send them home early.

C. Prohibit political discussions and dispense martinis only to guests who are accompanied by a muscular and firm-minded teetotaler.

Insist On Eggs

D. Insist at 12:01 a.m. that everyone eat a plate of scrambled eggs and bacon and a cup of hot soup, tea or coffee. If any refuse, call the police and say they're disturbing your peace.

8. Don't mix drinks.

9. If you go to someone else's party, leave your car at home. Take a cab.

10. Don't mix anything—drinks or people—if you know or suspect this is one of the times you shouldn't.

Better Than Bloody Mess

11. If you plan to go to an early morning New Year's Day religious service, walk to the nearest church. If a guy who has to fumble for his car keys insists on taking you or your family anywhere tonight—or his own wife and kids—pour castor oil in his drink, let the air out of his tires, or call the cop.

It is always better to make a scene than to become a bloody mess. Many of the holiday accident victims are wives, children or friends of a bottle-ambushed man of good will who is steering a wheel when he can't steer himself. They die or are crippled because they are social cowards who lack the courage to say "no" when they should.

12. Don't—even if you have to miss a New Year's Eve celebration—miss the adventure of being on Wednesday morning.

XMAS OFFERING OF NEARLY $1,100 AT ST. ALOYSIUS

The Rev. Fr. William A. Boyle, pastor of St. Aloysius Catholic Church, announced at the Sunday masses that close to $1,100 had been received to date in the annual Christmas offering. Yesterday, the day designated by the bishops of the United States for special prayers for all those suffering from religious persecution, was observed with a high mass at 10:30 a.m.; and Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament following. The Blessed Sacrament remained on the altar throughout the day, and was visited by members of the congregation for private prayer and meditation. Special prayers to the intention of the day were said at last evening's service, concluding with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

Confessions will be heard beginning at 7 o'clock tonight, in preparation for the Feast of the Circumcision tomorrow, a holy day of obligation, when masses will be celebrated at 5:30 and 7:30 a.m. Masses on Wednesday and Thursday will begin at 7:15 a.m., and the First Friday mass at 7:30 a.m.

Committees for the Saturday night public party in the parish hall were announced as follows: Arrangements, Thomas French, William Hood, William T. Gingrow Jr., William Gross, Burnell M. Keagy, B. Roy Kebil, Bernard G. Kebil and John R. Rudisill Jr.; refreshments, Mrs. Paul E. Alcott, Mrs. Theron T. Weaver, Mrs. Marvin Miller, Mrs. Herbert Frock, Mrs. Agnes Richards, Mrs. Thomas Rider and Mrs. John Gulden.

The children of St. Aloysius School will resume their studies, following the Christmas vacation, on Wednesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Z. W. Sanders, Lumber St., have returned home after spending several days over Christmas with their son-in-law and daughter, Major and Mrs. Norman J. Orndorff, and family, Newburgh, N. Y.

Dr. James C. Sentz, St. Paul, Minn., is visiting over the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin M. Sentz Sr., Cemetery St. Dr. Sentz, who is doing research work in agronomy, made the trip home by plane.

Christmas Day guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Dewey Strevig, near town, were Mr. and Mrs. Murray Masenheimer, near town; Mr. and Mrs. Ned Masenheimer and children, Allen and Cynthia, York; Mr. and Mrs. John Blettner, Mr. and Mrs. Preston Masenheimer and son Fred, Hanover, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Binkley, Philadelphia.

Britisher's Luck Finally Runs Out

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — There's a corking good luck piece showering Houston these days, The Better Business Bureau reports.

It seems a Britisher living in Torquay, England, owns what he calls a "Wishing Cork Tree." The cork tree, he writes in his sale testimonial, has a 300-year record for causing good luck.

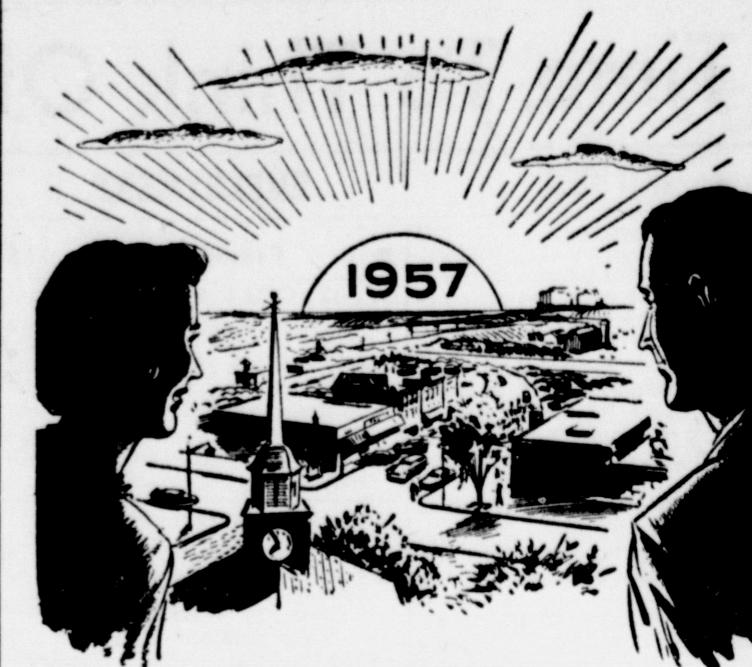

The testimonial says cork holders have won at everything from craps to the Irish Sweepstakes, well worth the $2 to $5 the Britisher was asking for chunks of the cork tree.

His own luck, however, has taken a turn for the worse. The Post Office Department informed the Bureau he was being charged with mail fraud.

EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1

Following its well-established policy of passing along to its patrons the maximum benefits possible, The Gettysburg National Bank announced on December 7, 1956, that it was increasing the interest rates on savings accounts and certificates of deposit from two (2%) per cent to three (3%) per cent. This announcement was prompted by the action of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System which authorized National Banks to increase their rates to a maximum of three (3%) per cent.

However, the Pennsylvania Department of Banking has not seen fit to increase the maximum rates which Banks can pay in Pennsylvania to the maximum rate fixed by the Federal Reserve System. Since the Bank is compelled to comply with the lesser of the two rates, it will pay interest at the rate of two and one-half (2 1/2%) per cent on savings accounts and certificates of deposit effective January 1, 1957.

In the event the Pennsylvania Department of Banking should reconsider its position and authorize an increase in interest rates, then this Bank will continue its policy of passing along these benefits to its patrons by increasing savings account and certificate of deposit interest rates accordingly.

Surviving New Year's Eve Is More Important Than Enjoying It

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — To most of America's 169 million people the greatest Cinderella second of the year is that tremulous moment at midnight on New Year's Eve.

We hope, however, the striking clock then will signal not so much the ashen death of our old dreams but herald the advent of a bright tomorrow when new and better dreams will come true.

But the problem is less how to enjoy New Year's Eve than to survive it.

Danger Of Mass Murder

Our intricate civilization has brought to this brief pinnacle of mass pleasure the danger of mass murder. It has become a task to see the new year out with fun—and yet be sure one has done nothing to keep one's self or one's friends from starting the new year alive and unbandaged.

Here are a few tips on how to get the most enjoyment mileage out of New Year's Eve with the last possible regret:

1. Remember, first of all, that we create most of our sorrows by pressing too hard for impossible joys.

Don't Mix 'Em

2. Don't mix drinks of grape and grain and distilled apples and potatoes.

3. Remember that, although it is a time of teeter-totter—one year dying, another year being born, you should retain the detachment of a midwife: Whatever happens, she keeps on living.

4. Don't mix drinks of grape and grain and distilled apples.

5. If you plan to leave your own home, check your insurance policies and see that they are all paid up.

Have Teetotaller On Hand

6. Don't mix drinks of grape and grain.

7. If you are having a party in your own home, do these things:

A. Don't serve any guest an alcoholic beverage until he has first drunk a 12-ounce glass of cold water or milk to remove any real thirst.

B. If you have a midnight nightcap, immediately announce you are going to entertain the remaining guests with card tricks. This will sober up any crowd, and send them home early.

C. Prohibit political discussions and dispense martinis only to guests who are accompanied by a muscular and firm-minded teetotaller.

Insist On Eggs

D. Insist at 12:01 a.m. that everyone eat a plate of scrambled eggs and bacon and a cup of hot soup, tea or coffee. If any refuse, call the police and say they're disturbing your peace.

8. Don't mix drinks.

9. If you go to someone else's party, leave your car at home. Take a cab.

10. Don't mix anything—drinks or people—if you know or suspect this is one of the times you shouldn't.

Better Than Bloody Mess

11. If you plan to go to an early morning New Year's Day religious service, walk to the nearest church. If a guy who has to stumble for his car keys insists on taking you or your family anywhere tonight—or his own wife and kids—pour castor oil in his drink, let the air out of his tires, or call the cop.

It is always better to make a scene than to become a bloody mess. Many of the holiday accident victims are wives, children or friends of a bottle-ambushed man of good will who is steering a wheel when he can't steer himself. They die or are crippled because they are social cowards who lack the courage to say "no" when they should.

12. Don't—even if you have to miss a New Year's Eve celebration—miss the adventure of being
